L. D. Palmer paid to G. C. Kelly $13.20, interest on Colvin Fund, to be paid to the claimants.

Bro. Thomas Bruce, of Henry County, having left a bequest of $500 to Preachers' Aid Society, B. F. Sedwick, S. X. Hall, and T. W. Barker were appointed to look after this interest.

The Board of Education was instructed to settle a note due the Millersburg Deposit Bank, amounting to about $7,500.

The next session of the Conference is to be held at Versailles.

The interest on the Demaree gift, S. X. Hall reported as $30, which stands in the report of Joint Board of Finance, credited to the Shelby Circuit, as that much Conference collection raised.

A bequest made to missions by B. Harris, deceased, was placed in the hands of the presiding elder of the Irvine District for him to look after this interest.

A vote of thanks was given the citizens for their kind entertainment of the Conference, and to the railroads for reduced rates of fare.

Resolutions of sympathy were passed, sympathizing with Bishop Wilson in his affliction, in his not being able to attend our Conference, and thanking Bishop McTyeire for performing this labor; also thanking Sister Kavanaugh, the widow of the Bishop, for her presence among us, and wishing her peace and happiness in her far off home.

Bishop McTyeire, by request, preached a memorial sermon to the Conference, for Bishops Kavanaugh and Pierce, to a large and attentive congregation on Sunday morning, setting forth the graces, virtues, and labors of these men, which was highly appreciated.

APPENDIX.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The General Conference Board has, under its care in the foreign field, missions in China, Brazil, and Mexico. In our own land it has the Indian, Mexican Border, and German Mission conferences, besides its work in the Florida, Western, Denver, Montana, Columbia, Los Angeles, and N. W. Texas conferences.

In China twenty-six missionaries, native and foreign, received appointments. They report one self-sustaining church, thirty adult and seven infant baptisms; eight churches owned and sixteen rented; three Anglo-Chinese schools; seventeen Sunday-schools, and four hundred and seventy-five pupils.

In Brazil, fifteen missionaries, eight teachers, ninety-nine pupils, and one hundred and fifty-one members and probationers.

In Central Mexican, eighteen day schools, four hundred and eighty-six teachers and pupils, forty-nine Sunday-schools, one thousand two hundred and fifty-three teachers and pupils, one thousand six hundred and fourteen members, with one hundred and fifty-seven adult and one hundred and forty-nine infant baptisms.

In Mexican Border, a ministerial force of forty-one, with one thousand two hundred and sixty-one members.

In Indian Mission Conference, six thousand one hundred and eighty-three members, with three hundred and sixty-one adult and four hundred and eighty-two infant baptisms, seventy Sunday-schools, three hundred and ten pupils and teachers, one thousand four hundred and sixty-five pupils, forty-five churches, six parsonages, and $4,141.35 raised for all purposes. One fact of the work of this Conference is worthy of mention; all the charges raised the assessments in full, and six charges paid from seventy to one hundred and twenty-five per cent more than assessed.

In the Kentucky Conference there are thirteen missions. We notice a very decided improvement in the reports of this year. The character of the work being done is, we think, better, and there is a clear gain on the work of last year. Then fuller reports were obtained from the missionaries, and we have reason to believe that the work of church extension is seen in these reports. There is reported two thousand three hundred and fifty-one members, sixteen church buildings, valued at $10,300, twenty-one local preachers, one hundred and seventy adult and sixty-five infant baptisms, seventeen Sunday-schools, one hundred and twelve officers and teachers, and seven hundred and twenty-eight scholars. Paid for support of Preachers, $1,697.96; Presiding Elder, $211.40; Conference collection, $33.70; Bishop's Fund, $21.85; Foreign Missions, $75.40; Domestic Missions, $43.40, and Church Extension Fund, $19.40.

Bro. J. J. Dickey presented his report on the Reid Fund, showing a collection of $100 the present year, and leaving a number of notes still unpaid, which we trust will be collected during the present year.

The Woman's Missionary Society reports as follows. Report of Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. S. C. Trueheart:

The fiscal year closed in March. The report submitted to this body at its last session showed twenty-nine auxiliaries, nine Juvenile Societies, a membership of nine hundred and ninety-nine, and $819.57 collected and appropriated. The 1st of March, 1884, the Society numbered thirty-nine auxiliaries, fifteen Juvenile Societies, total membership of one thousand one hundred and sixty-nine. Money forwarded and appropriated, $1,573.12, as shown by Treasurer's report. Since March, 1884, one auxiliary has been revived and four organized, besides three new Juvenile Societies formed and more than $1,300 collected.

Report of Treasurer, Mrs. S. Noland, from March, 1883, to March, 1884:

JOHN REEVES, Secretary.

The Conference adopted the following:

WHEREAS, The Board of Missions at Nashville has loaned to the Missionary Centenary Fund $47,000, a part of which should be contributed by the Kentucky Conference, therefore,

Resolved, That the ministers raise in their congregations a special collection, and forward it to the Treasurer by the 1st of January, 1885, to meet this demand, and that the presiding elders apportion the amount to the districts.

EDUCATION.

The committee to whom the vital subject of education was referred, beg to report that it is a significant fact that Methodism had its birth-place at the venerable and learned University of Oxford; that its first superintendent in this country was a Doctor of Laws, and that among the earliest Church efforts after its constitutional formation, a hundred years ago, was the effort to found a Church School called the Cokesbury School.

Methodism has always had the idea prominent in her history that education is among the first and grandest fields of Christian effort, and that it is the duty of the Church to furnish correct Christian education for her children and at her own altars.

In our own State, Bethel Academy was one of the earliest efforts to furnish correct, liberal education under the fostering care of religion.

Your committee are profoundly impressed with the conviction that our children should be correctly trained in intelligent views of what our Church is, teaches, and does, and should be led to form early attachments for the peculiar doctrines and polity and principles of our Church.

To this grand end of securing the young minds and hearts and future devotion to the cause of piety, it is important that those having charge of our literary institutions should be men and women of known fidelity to Methodism, true to her interests and faithfully laboring for her good.

It is regarded by the committee to be the solemn duty of our members to patronize our own schools, and those within their Conference bounds. An education that would train our children to depart from the Church of their fathers should most sedulously be guarded against by those who properly estimate the influence of Church education.

The committee would suggest the necessity of avoiding in our education, in amusements, exhibitions, or commencements, a false love of ornament, extravagant gratification of taste, or undue effort at imitation of false fashions or models. Thus should be kept up the proper consistency between the conduct of the schools and the Christian character that our Church teaches and requires.

Correctness and thoroughness in teaching and in the exercise of good discipline should be insisted on in opposition to mere show and display of superficial attainments. This is seen in the remarkable exhibitions of the co-education of the sexes in our colleges and universities. The female mind is invited to participate in all the courses of study, and in the wealth of science and letters.

In view of the mighty influence to be exerted by well equipped, well-endowed, well-conducted Church schools, it is a very important suggestion of the centenary committee that education be considered vitally necessary with missions and church extension, and should form one of three grand objects of centennial love and offering in intelligent, efficient recognition of "What hath God wrought" in a hundred years of the toils and triumphs of our beloved Methodism.

The committee have carefully considered the communications referred to them in reference to our different Church schools:

Kentucky Wesleyan College.—While it is to be regretted that financial necessity causes frequent changes in the Faculty of this school, and thereby to a certain extent tends to chill ardent support and effort on the part of friends, it is a matter of pleasure that this institution, which has furnished so many valuable educated minds to the different pursuits in society, and given to this body so many valuable ministers, is, under the recent new organization, gladdened with the promise of still greater usefulness and success. We offer:

1. Resolved, That we cherish a high appreciation of the value of the Kentucky Wesleyan College as the only male college under the charge of this Conference.

2. Resolved, That we will endeavor to increase the number of its pupils, the size of its endowment, with additions to its library and apparatus.

3. Resolved, That we learn with pleasure from the report of S. Noland, the treasurer, that the income of the college, under his management, is slowly increasing year by year.

4. Resolved, That we heartily commend the Kentucky Wesleyan College to all parents having sons to educate as a school where, from the fidelity of the instructors, their care over the health and morals of the pupils, the character of the building, apparatus, and grounds, a good, thorough, practical education can be obtained, and on very economical terms.

Stanford Female College.—This institution, under the care of that noble woman and excellent educator, Mrs. S. Truehart, commends itself to parents who desire to have their daughters thoroughly educated in manners and morals as well as in science.

Resolved, That the Stanford Female College is worthy of our high commendation as a school for the training of young ladies. Here the excellence of the home life, the maternal loving influence blend with the instruction in science and the storing of the mind with valuable knowledge.

Millersburg Female School.—Here the influence of change of administration is felt, but it is hoped that, under the presidency of Dr. Evans and his associates in the faculty, this school, which has educated so many young ladies in different States, may still exert a wide-spread good influence in correct female training and literary culture. The committee offer the following resolutions :

1. Resolved, That we cherish, as ever, a deep interest in the continued success of the Millersburg Female College.

2. Resolved, That we will exert our personal influence to fill its halls with students, and in every way in our power to promote its permanent prosperity.

Science Hill School.—This old and honored female school, under the presidency of Rev. Dr. Poynter, is regaining rapidly its former prestige and maintaining its reputation for correct training of girls and young women. The course of study is ample, the instructors efficient, the location good, and the attention to the comfort of the scholars is marked, while without any apparent effort the exercise of good discipline is manifest.

1. Resolved, That we have learned with pleasure that the Science Hill School is yearly increasing in its number of scholars and the extent of its literary facilities and the advanced grade of its scholarship and literary training.

Resolved, That we will endeavor to bring more prominently before our different charges this school, and to secure for it a more extended and liberal support.

Resolved, That the presiding Bishop is hereby requested to appoint Rev. Dr. Evans as President of Millersburg Female College, and Rev. Dr. Poynter as President of Science Hill School.

W. H. ANDERSON.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education report of their acts and doings during the past Conference year :

They congratulate themselves and the Conference in having secured for the Faculty of the College for the ensuing year, D. W. Batson, A. M., President and Professor of Natural Sciences; W. H. Garnett, A. M., Professor of Mathematics and Instructor in French; R. T. Spencer, A. M., Professor Ancient Languages and German; C. W. Wood, A. B., Assistant Instructor in English and Latin; Rev. Morris Evans, D. D., of the Millersburg Female College, Instructor in Mental and Moral Philosophy and Evidences of Christianity.

As part of this report we subjoin the report of S. Noland, Treasurer, in reference to the financial status of our Endowment Fund, which we are happy to find is decidedly encouraging.

Statement of the financial condition of Kentucky Wesleyan College, September 10, 1884:

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on Bible Cause make the following report: There is no interest coming before this Conference of greater importance than that of the American Bible Society, and yet none that has been so sadly neglected, for while we have resolved and re-resolved to take up collections in the different churches of our respective charges, it has been the rare exception where this duty has been performed, except at such churches as have been visited by the agent, Dr. Savage.

To such an extent have the preachers neglected this interest that Kentucky to-day draws more from the treasury of the American Bible Society than she contributes to it, thus weakening instead of strengthening the Parent Society for the great work in foreign and destitute fields. A small contribution from each church would obviate this difficulty and enable us to supply our work at home, and also assist in the glorious work abroad. Therefore, as this Society is the preacher's greatest aid in bringing the world to Christ, we simply urge upon the preachers of the Kentucky Conference the prompt discharge of their duty in this interest as set forth in the report of the committee at the last Conference. We ask the Bishop to appoint G. S. Savage to the agency of this Society.

J. A. SAWYER.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension of the Kentucky Conference make the following report: We rejoice in the progress made in this department of our work. Our collections this year are larger than the past year. We have had an existence of two years only, during which time we have collected a sufficient amount to complete five churches in the bounds of the Conference. We have arranged to complete one church at West Liberty, valued when completed at $2,000; also one at Campton, valued at $1,200; The church at Campton already completed and dedicated; also one in the Caintown Mission, near the U. S. Cemetery, valued at $400; also one at Corinth, valued at $1,800, and one at Persimmon Grove, valued at $1,500. Several applications for help declined for the want of funds.

In view of the pressing demands of the work, we urge upon the members of the Conference the importance of greater diligence in collecting these funds for the coming year. We have collected for the year just closed the following amounts: From the Lexington District, $210.46; Covington District, $139.96; Danville District, $123.82; Maysville District, $144.50; Shelbyville District, $153.90; Irvine District, $12.15; Anniversary collection, $50.65; Total, $835.44. Disbursed as follows: $417.72, will be paid to D. Morton, Secretary of the Parent Board.

For Home work we have $417.72, which has been appropriated as follows: To West Liberty Church, $187.50, in addition to what was appropriated last year, making in all $400; Church at Corinth, $100;

Church at Persimmon Grove, $100. A small amount is still in the hands of the Treasurer, not appropriated.

The Parent Board has assessed on our Conference for the present year the sum of $1,900, which amount has been assessed on the districts as follows: Lexington District, $430; Danville District, $320; Shelbyville District, $390; Covington District, $330; Maysville District, $370; Irvine District, $60. Total, $1,900.

SENECA X. HALL.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee to examine the District Conference Records, reports that we have examined the records of the following districts: Lexington, Maysville, Danville, Covington and Irvine. The records of the Shelbyville District Conference were not before the committee.

Of those records which we have examined, we would report that they have been well and carefully kept; all of them giving evidence that the various Conferences gave due attention to the disciplinary questions as required by law.

J. H. YOUNG.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday-school Board of the Kentucky Conference reports as follows:

We are gratified to state that there is a marked improvement in the number and state of the Sunday-schools within the bounds of the Conference, more especially in the Shelbyville District, in which, in the last two years, there has been an increase of six schools, one hundred and six officers and teachers, and seven hundred and fifty-three pupils, by far the greatest increase of any District in the Conference. We congratulate said District on having organized according to the recommendations of this Board. Also, on the two successful District Sunday-school Conferences held within its bounds, for to the influence exerted by these may be, in a great measure, attributed the success of its work.

We would also congratulate the Lexington, Danville, and Irvine Districts on having held their respective District Sunday-school Conferences during conference year.

We regret that neither the Covington nor Maysville District has held its District Sunday-school Conference. At the last annual Conference the Presiding Elders of said Districts took this matter into their own hands with the above mentioned result.

As upon the interest and exertions of the Presiding Elders depends the success of this work, we would hereby recommend:

First. That the Presiding Elder of the Covington District hold the Sunday-school Conference for his District at Williamstown, Ky., beginning on the first Thursday in May, 1885.

Second. That the Presiding Elder of the Maysville District hold the Sunday-school Conference for his District at Carlisle, Ky., beginning on the last Thursday in April, 1885.

The Annual Conference Sunday-school Convention for the Kentucky Conference is appointed to meet at Cynthiana, Ky., on the first Wednesday in July, 1885.

We would again call the attention of the Conference to the Sunday-school literature published at Nashville, Tenn., and urge the preachers to use no other, as its merits are not excelled, and through it our children may be instructed in the doctrines of Methodism.

B. F. GOSLING.

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS' HOME.

Your committee, to whom was referred the annual report of the Treasurer of our Widows and Orphans' Home, beg leave to say that the institution is making gratifying progress. Children are being received, cared for and educated, and we have capacity to care for many more. As to the financial condition of the Home, we refer to the Treasurer's annual statement, and make it a part of this report, as follows, to-wit:

We would most earnestly request the Conference to pass and carry out the following resolutions:

Resolved, That each pastor in the bounds of the Conference appoint a committee of ladies in each congregation to solicit money and supplies for the Home.

Resolved, That our preachers and people be earnestly requested to look up any destitute orphan children within the bounds of our Conference, and take the necessary steps to get them into the Home.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals reports as follows :

The annual exhibit of the Book Agent and Book Committee for the year ending April 1, 1884, presents a most gratifying state of things. The business of the Publishing House for the fiscal year has amounted to $240,630.39, an increase over the preceding year of $23,656.10, and a total gain to the House of $63,807.84. Of the 4 percent bonds, there have been retired during the year $41,225, leaving of the old debt of 1878 ($350,876.16) a balance of only $148,875.

The business of the House is being done on a strictly cash basis. No new debts are being incurred, and as indicated above, the old bonded debt is being reduced as rapidly as the interest of the House will allow.

The danger point has been passed and the House placed beyond the probability of failure or peril. All that is necessary in order to her largest prosperity and usefulness is the united, unstinted patronage and support of our people. This she has a right to expect at our hands.

We note with pleasure the steadily improving excellency of all our publications, as to matter, quality of material used, mechanical execution, and cheapness. In all these respects they compare favorably with those of any publishing house in the land.

The Nashville Christian Advocate is constantly taking higher rank among the religious weeklies of the world, and supplies a place in our Church literature and life peculiarly and pre-eminently its own. It is our connectional paper, and the only paper owned, controlled and operated exclusively by and in the interest of our Church. It is now sending out 25,000 copies weekly, and before the end of this, our centenary year, its subscription list ought to be doubled.

The Quarterly Review retains its commanding place as an able exponent of the doctrines of the Church, and is fully abreast of the thought and demands of the age. We heartily commend it to the Church.

Too much can not easily be said in praise of our Sunday-school publications. The Magazine is what its name indicates, a store-house full of the finest, freshest thought for the Sunday-school workers; the Session and Intermediate quarterlies are excellent, while the "Illustrated Lesson Paper" and "Our Little People" are brimful of good things, presented in the most attractive style for the little folks.

We note with special pleasure the fact brought out in the annual exhibit of the Publishing House, that during this, the centenary year of American Methodism, the sale of our denominational doctrinal books has been unusually large. This we regard as a token for good. Strong Christian character can only be developed by solid, broad Christian intelligence as a basis.

In this connection allow us to call attention to a recent and exceedingly opportune publication of our House, a work that should have place in the library of every preacher and layman of the Church who desires to be thoroughly informed as to the history of his own denomination, the History of Methodism, by Bishop McTyeire.

The Advocate of Missions and Woman's Missionary Advocate are both valuable publications, supplying a place and furnishing information of the first and greatest importance to the Church in their respective fields of operation. They deserve the widest circulation among our people.

And lastly we would urge upon our people the claims of the Central Methodist. Age increases its value and importance, and as a medium of Conference information, it is almost indispensable. We hope its circulation may be increased as its merits deserve.

In consideration of the foregoing, therefore be it

Resolved, that we pledge our continued support to all these interests. We request the Bishop to appoint Stephen Noland editor of the Central Methodist.
J. W. MITCHELL.

MEMOIR.

Death has invaded our circle since our last Conference and removed to heaven our beloved brother, Rev. Daniel D. Duty. He was born near Bethel, Bath County, Ky., May 1, 1825, and departed this life in Mt. Sterling, Ky., August 14, 1884. When about thirteen years old he joined the Church and was converted at a camp meeting in Mason County. From that time to the end of his life pure and undefiled religion marked his pilgrimage.

Our brother was licensed to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on the 5th day of July, 1856. In 1859 he was happily married to Lode-ma B. Smith, who, with five children, survives him. On the 25th September, 1859, he was ordained a Deacon by Bishop Andrew. and on the 10th September, 1865, he was ordained an Elder by Bishop Kavanaugh. He entered the itinerant ranks in the Kentucky Conference in the year 1872, and was able to do efficient work for five years when, his health failing, he was compelled to ask a superannuated relation. In that relation and as a member of the Kentucky Conference he met death.

For a considerable period before his death our brother was a sufferer, but patience and resignation stayed his faith in Christ. He was confined to his room nearly a year before his death. His last illness continued about three weeks. During this time his religious experience grew brighter and stronger. Jesus was his constant theme and his praise, his delight. He said that he had preached Jesus and would live and die with Jesus. Gradually and calmly he sank to rest, and beneath him were the everlasting arms. He has reached the Paradise of God. In his death he realized

Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are.

We tender to the widow and children of our dear brother our Christian sympathies, and assure them of our prayers in their behalf at the Throne of Grace. May our covenant-keeping God be the husband of the widow and the father of the fatherless. And may we, his brethren of the Conference who survive him a few days, be also ready when the Master calls us beyond the Jordan.

Your Centenary Committee would respectfully report that from a total of eighty-five circuits and stations, only thirty-seven have made any report, and forty-eight have made none. Of those reporting many have been nominal or meagre, and mainly for local purposes. The pastors assure us that they will give attention to this during the next conference year. We would not omit to remind them of this duty, and the importance of having their reports in the hands of the Treasurer by or before the Christmas anniversary. For all payments rendered by that time they will have due credit in the final reports.

I Revog presents address Richmond Sp. + Harrodsburg Ky Wesleyan College $200

J. WINTER & CO., the Old Reliable Clothiers

Beg to announce to the citizens of Louisville and vicinity that they do not sell common watches or unreliable clocks or fire-proof brick "that won't burn," and throw in an armful of "cheap" clothing, "bought for the occasion," as some houses "do" in other places, that they have not joined the band of JUGGLERS and MOUNTEBANKS, who infest the clothing trade in "other" places and "play" upon the credulity of the unsuspecting or easily persuaded. No, they, J. WINTER & CO., Corner of Third and Market Streets, continue to do a "legitimate" clothing trade, they sell reliable, honest, well-cut, well-made, well-trimmed clothing of their own manufacture, and in all cases give full value for the money they receive and need not "throw in" anything for an "attraction" (??) or to make people think by "ways that are dark or tricks that are vain" they are getting "big bargains," when in fact the reverse is the truth. "THEREFORE," go to J. WINTER & CO., Corner of Third and Market Streets, the only LOUISVILLE Manufacturing Clothiers, and buy what you need. For watches and clocks go to a jeweler, and for "fire-proof" bricks to a brickyard, and you will not have to pay for anything but what you buy.

MALARIA OF 2,500 YEARS' STANDING CONQUERED AT LAST.

The Deadly Malaria of the Roman Campana and the Pontine Marshes.

The Rev. W. C. VANMETER, so well known in this country for his good work in rescuing boys from the Five Points, New York City, and finding them homes in the West, is now a Bible Missionary at Rome, Italy. Agent of the Italian Bible and Sunday-school Mission of New York. While visiting the United States this summer, and in Louisville, he was suffering with Malarial Fever, contracted during the performance of his missionary work in and around Rome, the home of Malaria for twenty-five hundred years. This is what Mr. Vanmeter writes to a friend in Louisville:

"Am using the remedy (Wintersmith's Tonic or Chill Cure) Mr. Arthur Peter gave me for Malarial Fever, instead of quinine, and find IT IS GOOD! Please call on Mr. Peter, and ask him as a special favor to send me more of it. I have used all I had; IT DID ME GREAT GOOD. I want to keep it with me all the time, for I must work."

WINTERSMITH'S TONIC.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
